

Presidents essential language

PARIS M A E STRASBOURG

2019

50th

INTERNATIONAL SESSION

Usual sentences

- I officially declare the 50 th. session of the Model European Parliament in Paris open.
- Distinguished guests, honourable delegates and Committee Presidents, dear participants of the Model European Parliament, welcome to the plenary sessions of the Model European Parliament session in...
- Before we start, I would like to mention a few points/ mention briefly/explain a few points/make a few remarks concerning...
- May I ask the Committee on ..... to come forward and take their seats?
- We now move on / proceed to the Opening speech / amendments / Speech against the resolution / Speech in favour of the resolution.
- Whom from the General Assembly would like to support the Committee / the submitter of the amendment?
- Whom from the Committee may deliver the speech against the amendment?
- We now move to a new topic. Whom from the General Assembly would like to question the Committee on a new issue?
- Honourable delegate from..., come/step forward, please.
- May I ask the honourable delegate from... to come forward and deliver her/his speech?
- Country X, you may have the word.
- We now move on to the voting procedure.
- Would the Heads of Delegation please count their votes?
- May I ask the Committee on Foreign Affairs/Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs/etc. to take their seats in the assembly?
- I hereby officially declare the 50th session of the Model European Parliament in Strasbourg is now closed.